Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe Canadian Language School presents At the 11th Hour. Twenty-one ESL stories you will really enjoy. A woman from Germany receives a letter from the United States saying that she has inherited all the assets of her deceased uncle. She is excited and cant wait to become rich. But a big surprise awaits her across the Atlantic Ocean. Two terrorists decide to steal a truck on the street in the middle of the night. They have no idea that something inside is waiting for them. If only they knew. A young woman who hates beggars finds herself on the street as a beggar herself. Will the experience change her? And much more. At the 11th Hour is a comprehensive reader designed especially for intermediate to advanced learners of English as a Second Language. It contains 21 thrilling stories which have plot twists and surprise endings. It was written, developed, and tested by English teachers with many years of classroom experience. There are vocabulary, reading, writing, and discussion exercises after each story. The stories were recorded by two American native speakers. The audio book is available separately.
