Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe heartrending story of a British boys four year ordeal in a Japanese prison camp during the Second World War.Based on J. G. Ballards own childhood, this is the extraordinary account of a boys life in Japanese-occupied wartime Shanghai a mesmerising, hypnotically compelling novel of war, of starvation and survival, of internment camps and death marches. It blends searing honesty with an almost hallucinatory vision of a world thrown utterly out of joint.Rooted as it is in the authors own disturbing experience of war in our time, it is one of a handful of novels by which the twentieth century will be not only remembered but judged.Revue de presse"An outstanding novel...a classic adventure story." -- The New York Times"A profound and moving work of the imagination." -- Los Angeles Times Book "An incredible literary achievement....Brilliant." -- Anthony Burgess
