Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurReturning to her Putney flat after an exhausting day at the office, Katy Brennan receives a phone call which will change her life for ever. Although she has always lived an ordinary life in London she is in fact the daughter of the former king of a small Balkan country, Maloslavia, and, as heir to the throne, is asked to go there to participate in a referendum for the restoration of the monarchy. While training for her role as Queen, she meets and falls in love with a crippled Orthodox theological student. Their exciting story evolves against a background of violence and corruption in a country struggling to recover after the collapse of Communism.Prsentation de l'diteurReturning to her Putney flat after an exhausting day at the office, Katy Brennan receives a phone call which will change her life for ever.
